

A GREAT MISTAKE

has heretofore been made in the treatment of rheumatism, neuralgia, and nervous or sick headache. This is evidenced by the failure on the part of thousands of sufferers to find relief, even though they have exhausted the skill of various physicians and tried numerous so-called remedies. To such Athlophor® is offered as a safe, sure, and quick cure. Its success has been phenomenal, and yet it is not surprising because it will do all that is claimed for it. The Athlophor® Co. will gladly refer any who desire to make an investigation to reliable parties who have been cured by it.

"Mrs. D. D. Pickett, Columbia, Wis., says: 'It is a little over a year ago when I was so badly afflicted. The disease was in every nerve and muscle of my body; I was completely prostrated and helpless for four weeks; I could not bear to be touched, as even the weight of a finger would cause the greatest pain, and I was in constant dread of its going into my lungs. It bordered on death for 24 hours, and the doctor told me I was grave doubts as to my getting well. I had taken many different kinds of medicines, but was recommended to try Ailophorus, was positive it would help me. Oh, how sick it made me, and had it not been for the persistent efforts of my husband I don't think I should have continued taking it; but he insisted I should keep on, and I did so for five days, and that I kept on for, and when I found I was not taking the bottle I was well. I only took a small dose as the medicine was so strong."

Madison, Wisconsin.
I have used Athlophoros for rheumatism and I can cheerfully say with the most satisfactory results. GEO. W. KUNZLEY,

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, catarrhs, etc., Athlophoros, in possible cases, and Athlophoros Pills are unequalled.

advertisers.

—The rates are growing longer.

—Folio at the risk this evening.

—Grand opening of the rink to-morrow.

—Where are you going next summer?

—Ranch 10, matinee, Christmas, 25 and 50 cents.

—Lee Erwin's case has been put over until January 5th.

—Golling will serve the supper at the fireman's dance to-morrow night.

—The polo game at the rink to-night will be called at nine o'clock sharp.

—The T. P. club met at the home of Mr. John Decker on Milton avenue last evening.

—The celebration of Burns' anniversary this year will be in the Guards' armory.

—Janesville Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar, assemble in annual convocation this evening at Masonic hall.

—The large sale in the rink have been running all day and the room will be warm and comfortable for spectators to-night.

—Are you going to see Ranch 10, Christmas matinee? Children, 25 cents; adults, 50 cents, to any part of the house.

—Go and see Ranch 10, at Myers' opera house, Saturday, December 25th—Christmas matinee and evening. Price 25 and 50 cents.

A good present—a nice safety lamp. Costs very little now. Call at barb wire factory and see them. All kinds going at less than cost.

—It is safe to say that the Choral Union ever give another concert similar to the one last night they will have their hall packed to the doors.

—Charles E. Pierce and William Smith returned last night from Madison, where they have been arguing the McKean case in the supreme court.

—Henry O. Wilson, of Kansas City, and F. D. Wilson, of Omaha, will spend Christmas in this city the guests of Postoffice Inspector J. D. King.

—The Odd Fellows and their families will gather around a Christmas tree at Odd Fellows hall on Saturday evening, and pass a few hours in sociability.

—Dr. Vance will make his next regular fortnightly visit to Janesville December 31st, stopping at the Myers house. The doctor devotes his attention to Uterine and Rectal Diseases.

—The Janesville toboggan slide is completed. Although not on the scale of that in Chicago it is affording the second warm young people who are members of the club any amount of fun.

—There is a show window at Stearns & Baker's drug store that seems likely to be complained of because the crowd that gathers there obstructs the sidewalk. The display of holiday goods is very fine.

—The Janesville Commandery meet this evening for the election of officers. The occasion will be celebrated by a banquet in which a number of visitors from Evansville and other surrounding towns will participate.

—The Rev. Olympia Brown, the Racine equal suffragist, spoke at Milton last evening and will be there again to-night. She was in the city to-day with Mrs. F. A. Clark, of Milton, making arrangements for speaking here on Monday evening.

—At nine o'clock this evening Clara M. King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King, will be united in marriage to Mr. Charles E. Watson, of Harvard. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents on South Locust street.

—The rehearsals for "A Bundle of Sticks" at Court Street M. E. church are going on every day. Besides this sparkling cantata the entertainment on Friday evening will include tableaux, recitations, musical shadow pictures and some very excellent music.

—A quiet wedding at which the contracting parties were Albert E. Newton, of Beloit, and Miss Clara A. Pentecost, whose parents live in the town of Plymouth, took place in the parlors of Dr. M. G. Hodges' residence last evening. Only a guest of the bride was present at the ceremony.

—The announcement in the Albany correspondence of last night's Gazette, that John Broderick, of this city, had taken unto himself a wife, was news to a great many of his Janesville friends. The ceremony, which took place some time ago, has been kept very quiet.

—Some time in January Mr. L. A. Torrence will give a children's festival in which his two afternoon classes will take part. There will be an orchestral accompaniment, and the affair will be similar to those that have made such a hit in other cities.

—Little Annie, the five months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Erdman, residing at the corner of North and Jefferson streets, died last evening. The funeral will be held at nine o'clock on to-morrow morning. In their sad bereavement the parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

—Rates on telegraph messages to western points are now considerably lower. The Western Union tariff from here to Colorado or Wyoming has been reduced from one dollar for the first ten words and seven cents for each one additional, to seventy five and five. On eight messages the charge is sixty and four.

—A majority of the Janesville merchants will observe Christmas by closing their stores at least part of the day. Groceries will all be closed at one o'clock sharp and a number of the other business houses also. One of the leading dry goods houses will not open at all, the employees being given a full day. Several firms besides this will probably do the same although the proprietors have not yet fully decided, whether to keep open during the morning or not.

—Madison Journal: While making a coupling at the freight yards of the Northwestern depot, Monday night, Dennis Foley had his right hand and wrist crushed so badly that amputation just above the wrist was rendered necessary. He is being cared for at the Sisters' hospital. Mr. Foley is a hardworking, deserving young man and has been very unfortunate. Not long since his wife died, leaving him with three little children.

—The "wall street band" exhibited his wickedness to a rather small audience again last night. The play was better in many respects than on the other two evenings, many of the wails being avoided and everything moving more smoothly. Atkins Lawrence and Miss Viola Allen have made many friends in this city and the same may be said of all the rest of the company. Those that were not present at least one evening missed an excellent entertainment.

—To-morrow—As a grand wind up to our holiday sale, we offer two immense bargains in handkerchiefs: First, at 25c, silk brocade handkerchiefs worth 50c; 25c, open lawn handkerchiefs, colored borders; hand embroidered handkerchiefs in white and colors; ladies' and gents' very fine white hem-stitched handkerchiefs, etc., worth up to 70c. 2nd lot at 50c, silk brocade handkerchiefs in every combination of colors, worth 75c to $1.00. These two lots eclipse all previously advertised handkerchief bargains.

N. Y. SAYING STONE.

PINCHON FREE AGAIN.

Married before Leaving the Prison—Frank P. Pinchon, who was convicted of adultery in the municipal court in this city in August, 1894, and sentenced to two years and a half to the state prison, has been released, his time having expired. It will be remembered that Pinchon was arrested in May, 1894, on suspicion of having something to do with the murder of Augustus Lockwood, but in the inquest the evidence was of such a circumstantial character that it was thought best not to hold him for trial on the charge of murder. It will be also remembered that at the inquest he testified that he was married to the woman with whom he lived, but on the trial for adultery he changed his testimony on that point, and concluded to swear that he was not married.

The woman that has been his companion for years did not desert him during his late confinement at Waupun, but remained in the village all the while, waiting patiently for his release, and on Sunday previous to his discharge, the prison chaplain married them in the chapel, and on Monday they started for Chicago, he declaring that his prison-life had ended forever, and that he purposed leading a reformed life.

Four days after Pinchon's release, the sheriff of Jefferson county appeared at the prison with a warrant for his arrest for a crime committed there before he went to Janesville. Pinchon is one of the hardest characters that ever entered Waupun. He has been in the industrial school for boys, and has served four terms in the state prison. He is so fettered by a desire to act the acrobat that it is not likely he will remain out of prison very long at a time.

They say the winter advertisements of houses will run somewhat in this style. A large and elegantly furnished house for rent, in one of the best of drug stores who calls Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

National Union.

At the annual meeting of the National Union, held last evening at the rooms of Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Thor J. Auld.

Vice President—James P. Gage.

Financial Secretary—E. J. Kent.

Recording Secretary—John Mezzies.

Treasurer—H. Bugholz.

Sergeant-at-Arms—George Baldwin.

Spokane—C. H. Kelley.

Chaplain—T. W. Lewis.

Deputy—O. T. DeLoe.

Door-keeper—Joseph Loeb.

The meeting night was changed to the second and fourth Fridays, each month, beginning with the new year.

Fairbank's celebrated Soaps will not injure the finest fabric. A pleasure to use them.

Free Lecture.

There will be an educational meeting in the Unitarian church on Monday evening next. The meeting will be addressed by Rev. Olympia Brown, of Racine. She will speak upon the relation of women to education.

This meeting is one of a series which is being held in the state to interest the people in the new school suffrage law. The meeting will be free but a 25 cent contribution will be expected from those who are able, not to remunerate the speaker, but to aid the cause. All are invited.

Fairbank's marvelous Soap makes hard water soft, elegant suds, easy washing.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 20 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind.

At one o'clock p. m. the register was 40 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. For corresponding hours one year ago the register was 36 and 32 degrees above zero.

A Valuable Medical Treatise.

The edition for 1897 of the sterling Medical Annual, known as Hostetter's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained free of cost, of druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the United States, Mexico, and indeed in every civilized portion of the Western Hemisphere. This Almanac has been issued regularly at the commencement of every year for over one-fifth of a century. It combines, with the soundest practical advice for the preservation and restoration of health, a large amount of interesting and amusing light reading, and the calendar, astronomical calculations, chronological items, etc., are prepared with great care, and will be found entirely accurate. The name of Hostetter's Almanac for 1897 will probably be the largest edition of a medical work ever published in any country. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Co., Pittsburgh, on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood.

THE CHARM OF MUSIC.

Draw Only a Small Audience at the Choral Union Concert.

It had not been intended to make the entertainment of the Choral Union last evening an elaborate affair and the audience that assembled in Apollo hall was a small one. The programme was very well carried out, every number receiving hearty applause.

The first selection was a chorus from Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise," with an opening solo by George K. Colling and a duet by Miss Kittie Farnsworth and Miss Anna Chabro. Both the ladies and Mr. Colling did remarkably well, while the work of the chorus also won much praise from the appreciative audience.

Mr. E. J. Samuels made his debut as a soloist and won hearty applause by his song, "The Two Children." He was followed by Miss Mattie Mack, of Broadhead, whose "O'er the Lover's Song" made her many new friends here.

Another chorus from the "Hymn of Praise," followed by a solo by Mrs. L. E. B. Biles, rendered very happily, and the star of the occasion, Seth M. Crane, of Rockford, was announced. His solo bore the well merited title "The Best of All," and drew forth such a burst of applause that he was obliged to respond with another selection.

A "Phantom Chorus" by the Union was sung very effectively. It preceded the solo of Miss Frances Edwards, entitled "Anchored," a selection that pleased the audience greatly. After that as it made up for the fewness of the instrumental selections by having nothing that was not especially good, there was a piano duet by Mrs. Blithoff and Mrs. E. A. Doty. This was so well received that these ladies also were obliged to respond with a second number.

Miss Etha Pond was in excellent voice and her song, "I Sent a Letter to My Love," was rendered in a very charming manner.

A solo by Miss Mack and another by Mr. Crane were to have concluded the entertainment, but the audience insisted on another and Mr. Crane finally responded with a humorous melody which fairly brought down the house.

Last evening was the ending of the first term of the Choral Union. Mr. Torrence thinks that with the Union, as it now is, he can accomplish more than ever, the new voices that are being developed having in them, he believes, much of promise.

Engineer Ray Brought Home.

Engineer John E. Ray, who was severely injured at Oakfield on the 23d of last October, was brought home to-day from Fond du Lac, where he had been under treatment since the accident. The Northwestern gave him the use of a special car which was attached to the express which arrives here at 12:30 from the north. Mr. Ray lay on a wire mattress bed prepared in an admirable manner for such a trip, and was accompanied by his wife, George M. Willis and wife of Milwaukee, and John Brown, of this city. He endured the journey splendidly and was in the least fatigued thereby.

At the time of the accident, Mr. Ray was passing from his engine to a certain car in his train when he was knocked off by an elevator about throwing him under the wheels of the slowly moving train. His right leg was broken in two places, his left hip badly broken, as was also his left leg. Part of the right hand was also taken off which caused a loss of one finger. In this terrible condition Mr. Ray was taken to Fond du Lac, and surgical aid summoned. Dr. Bishop has attended him constantly ever since the accident, and has brought him to this condition which gives promise of an early return to duty. But the thing that saved Ray was his courage and fortitude. His injuries were severe enough to kill an ordinary man, but he fought with remarkable heroism for his life, and has won the battle.

An Elegant Display.

Gents' toilet cases, shaving cases, manicure cases, jewel cases, odor cases, collar and cuff cases, opera glasses, cut glass bottles, ologes and toilet water, face perfumes, opera glass bags, gents' dressing cases, toilet mirrors, and a great variety of other goods for the holiday trade at Frentice & Evenson's opposite the postoffice. The display of toilet goods now on exhibition at Frentice & Evenson, surpasses any thing in this line ever offered in Janesville.

Barbers Close Christmas.

We, the undersigned barbers in the city of Janesville, do hereby agree to close our respective places of business on Saturday next the 25th inst. (Christmas day) at 3 o'clock p. m. sharp.

Reynolds & Mat—L. P. Spears, A. H. Tied.

C. H. Riggs—H. Anderson, G. O. Straw.

Wish Bros.—Tim. Hennessy.

The other shops have agreed to close at the time named but do not think it advisable to sign a declaration to that effect.

For the benefit of the trade the various shops in the city will keep open after 9 o'clock on Friday night.

To-morrow—last day of our great holiday sale. Holiday goods still in stock will be sold regardless of cost or value, as we don't want to carry over any goods of this kind. Plush odor cases, comb and brush sets, manicures, mirrors, etc., at prices to close. Large wax dolls, worth 75 cents to $1, will be closed at 50 cents. Immense bargains in silk handkerchiefs, 70-cent and 81 grades, reduced to 50 cents.

N. Y. SAYING STONE.

The Night Time to Do.

Messrs. Bort, Bailey & Co. close their special eight days' sale to-morrow evening. Their store has been literally packed with customers since the opening day, which is good evidence of the fact that judicious advertising is profitable. The firm has wisely decided to observe Christmas as a holiday, thus giving their employees an opportunity to enjoy the day. This is the right thing to do and every clerk in the city would appreciate the same privilege.

Convenient pleasant, and certain in their results, are Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets, recommended by physicians and endorsed by all who have used them. The best remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency and Constipation. Guaranteed, sold 25c.

"There was an old man of Tobago, lived on rice, gruel, and mango, he had headache so bad. After he had a bottle of Salvation Oil, he could eat roast beef and plum pudding all right."

"Ranch 10."

Managers Markock & Myers will have a strong and very popular play at their theatre next Saturday. "Ranch 10" is now in its fifth year of success, and has given great satisfaction wherever produced. Elegant scenery is carried by the company, and this enables realistic productions to be given, one in particular being that of the burning ranch in the second act where A. McClelland rescues Annie Smalley from the burning ranch.

The Aurora Bulletin of Thursday, Sept. 22, 1896, says: "By far the best theatrical performance to which Aurora has been treated this season was that of 'Ranch 10' by the Markock &amp
